NEWS RELEASE

“Century Bank has long believed that family values really do make a difference. We are committed to creating a positive impact in Winchester,” said Barry R. Sloane, Co-President and Co-CEO of Century Bank. “The Friends of Winter Pond share in our belief that investing in the environment will not only improve our neighborhood, but also preserve it for future generations.”

“We are honored to give back to the town that has welcomed our Bank so warmly,” said Jonathan G. Sloane, Co-President and Co-CEO of Century Bank. “Winter Pond gives us a unique opportunity to contribute to a Winchester community treasure that offers spectacular opportunities for public recreation and enjoyment all year round.”

“With our newest branch in Winchester, we have grown to love and appreciate Winter Pond,” said Marshall M. Sloane, Chairman and Founder of Century Bank. “We are happy to partner with the many residents who have volunteered their time and energy to this special place. We look forward to supporting the Winchester community and all its worthwhile endeavors.”

“We consider Winter Pond a true jewel in Winchester,” said the Chair of the Winchester Board of Selectmen, Roger Berman, who is also on the Board of Directors for the Friends of Winter Pond. “Thanks to the generosity of Century Bank and others, Winter Pond is a discovery place for people of all ages to learn about the important resources which enrich the neighborhood.”

“We believe Winter Pond provides enormous benefits and greatly enhances the aesthetics of the town,” added Kate Reynolds, Vice President of the Friends of Winter Pond. “We appreciate the interest and support that Century Bank has given to improve Winter Pond and celebrate the joys of the outdoors.”
